

XM Radio is competing in the market, just like everyone else. If customers want to switch from FM radio to XM radio, XM must be offering something which FM does not. Whether that be sound quality, quality programs, or something else. Please allow XM to continue to offer services and compete with local broadcasters.